

Affinity Cruises - What to Bring Marlborough Sounds Overnight Cruise

Suggested Clothing for Cruising on Affinity

Cruising on board Affinity is relaxed and casual and you will feel most comfortable if you bring relaxed and casual clothes with you. Weather can be changeable and the best way to cope with this is to pack 'layers' of clothing. You will probably be surprised how few clothes you end up wearing while you are away and may wonder why you packed so much.

'Essentials' Packing list:

✓ when packed		✓ when packed
Personal bathroom items (shampoo and conditioner etc.). Flowing soap is available on board - feel free to bring your own personal bar of soap.		Prescribed medications, and any personal medications such as antihistamines for stings, antidiarrheal medication and motion sickness medication
Underwear		Shorts or trousers suitable for walking
Pyjamas		Short and/or long sleeved tops
Socks		Wet weather gear
Singlet/camisole		Warm hat
Flannel		Sunhat/cap
Indoor shoes with good grip (slippers)		Day pack for walkers and drink bottle
Comfortable walking shoes or sandals (gumboots available on board)		Warm sweatshirt, jersey or jacket (windbreaker)

Some other suggestions:

✓ when packed		✓ when packed
Glasses, contacts, contacts cleaner		Sunglasses/reading sunglasses
Binoculars		Sun screen/sun block and lip sunblock
Small torch		Reading material – books to read while relaxing on board
Swim suit
Camera and manual (+ extra film or extra memory cards, and batteries/battery charger, tripod)		Cash or cheques for the on-board shop. Maps, t-shirts, caps and coasters are available, plus a small range of beverages.
Journal or notebook and pen/pencil – for making notes to tell your friends back home about your experiences		Insect repellent (not for your cabin on board, but for those pesky sandflies ashore)

Mobile phone coverage in the Marlborough Sounds is sporadic. For urgent messages, we rely on the marine radio operators. Please contact our office on 0800 862 334, or our after hours number 027 220 3585 for any assistance.